

It is important to approve the ARRL application. This band will fill a critical gap in the spectrum needed for emergency communications here in the mountains of the west.